GOODRICH'S GREAT RACE.

The Great Western Handicap, a sweepstakes for 3-year-olds and upwards, at one and one-half miles, worth $2100 to the winner, caused the presence of the largest Saturday crowd of the meeting (bar Derby day) at Washington Park and conclusively proved the popularity of long distance racing. The card outside of the stake event was a fair one. The day was extremely hot and uncomfortable. Twenty-three bookmakers "cut in" for two days, but Ed Austin was an absentee, while Dave Wright went on. It was said that this popular bookmaker, who almost every day made the pace as to ring prices, is a heavy loser at the present meeting. It is certain that never before in the history of Chicago racing has the public been treated to such liberal odds as now. A bookmaker to win must necessarily "hold the winner," and a man like George Wheelock, with three or four efficient aids, could surely make several hundreds of dollars daily by playing every horse that starts at the highest price, and to do this a capital of not more than $5000 would be required.weeney announced to the ring that bookmakers must occupy the spaces designated by number and keep away from the posts. This meant the greater convenience of the public, no matter what the concealed motive.

The betting on the Great Western Handicap was of a general nature, no particular horse being "lumbered on." John Rodegap thought that the 9 to 5 favorite, What'er Lou, should have won the Oakwood Handicap, but questioned the ability of Foucon when in such high-class company of jockeys. Louis Ezell could but think well of Morte Fonse, and Bing Binger had recently beaten a record. Goodrich was much liked by the select few but Candelaria was entirely neglected. Bing Binger, rank as could be, quite ran away with Clawson and led for a mile and three-sixteenths, where What'er Lou, always second, picked him up, and, soon beaten, Barrett's horse fell away to nothing. Morte Fonse, had been third for a mile, but then gave away to Candelaria, who, however was at once displaced by Goodrich, now beginning his run. What'er Lou came into the straight with such a pronounced lead that the race seemed over. By an eighth further on he was sent to the whip and Tommy Burns, on Goodrich, without urging his horse, ran home the easiest of winners, while What'er Lou died so fast that old Morte Fonse, apparently all out a half mile away from the wire, came on gamely and ran the favorite close for second money.

In the first race Burns & Waterhouse started for the first time of the meeting, their colors being up on Excursion. To a good start, Willie Martin sent Ailyar to the lead in the first one-sixteenth and not again headed, Dunne's horse won in a close finish with Toluca, both Martin and Clawson driving in the last one hundred and fifty yards. Formero just beat Judge Tarvin for third money. No others were prominent in the homestretch. Ailyar was well backed, as high a bet as $350 being registered. Judge Tarvin was played "on the Q. T." Toluca probably ran the best race, she being interfered with more than once. Jolly Roger ran his race at the post.

In the second race there was a long delay at the post caused by Meddler, then the flag fell with George H. Ketcham in front. "Everett has got something on the barrier," was the remark, relative to this jockey's ability in breaking away. Ketcham had been strongly backed by Mr. Drake, who evidently fancies Duke & Wishard's horses and the place price receded from 8 to 5 to even money. The leader was not caught until the last three-sixteenths post when Candleblack, always lying third, went on and won handily from Meddler, who easily got the place from Ketcham. Marzella was second the first half-mile. The two-year-olds, The Kentuckian and Boney Boy could never get up.

David Tenny laid second to Boanerges for a mile and one-sixteenth, then went to his saddle skirt, and the pair raced thus to the last eighth post. Here Barratt went to the whip on Boanerges, but "Skeets" Martin hunched Dunne's horse along and gradually drew away. Monk Wayman was beaten before the horses had covered three-quarters of a mile. David Tenny opened favorite at even money, but went to the post at 7 to 5, Boanerges receding from 8 to 5 to even money.

Azucena proved the surprise of the day. Her last performance was July 2, when she, carrying 107 pounds, ran third to Elusive and Three Bars at Latonia, the distance being one mile and seventy yards. Marcus Cartwright bet $80 against $750 on her, and Frank White "doped her out" and bet $5 at 12 to 1. Bannockburn stumbled rounding the first turn and was out of it, the lead being taken by Miss Gussie and St. Alfonses D. Imp was third at the half, Azucena fourth two lengths away, but when Imp took command on the far turn, Mr. Long's filly went to her head and the pair raced to the betting shed where Azucena drew away and won from Imp who beat Miss Gussie lengths for the place.

Roger B. led off in the sixth race, only to give way to King Bermuda and Bishop Reed, who formed the front rank up the backstretch, with Don Quixote right there. So they ran to the turn for home, where Thorpe got in next to the rails, soon had King Bermuda safe, and when Bishop Reed came up had enough left to just win by hard punching from Rodegap's horse, King Bermuda third.

Lowry Marks, a native of Springfield, Mass., and one of the old guard of eastern sports, dropped in on his way west. He is fresh from Peoria and spoke enthusiastically of the record breaking (season of year considered) performance of Star Pointer, the fast race of Bumps, and the wonderful speed shown by a new three year old. Marks was in England during "Tod" Sloan's successful career. Said he: "Every day one would see in the papers 'Sloan, the American, again saved the bookmakers.' This by winning on a long shot, that English jockeys had given up. One day at Liverpool Tod rode four times and failed to win a race. Still for one ride—that on Keenan—he was highly complimented. The favorite was a two-year-old that Keenan was giving thirty or forty pounds and the youngster at once got so far away that a runaway race went up. But Tod kept at work and made a tight beating of it at the finish, all other horses being beaten off. "Good boy!" yelled an English racing expert. "Good boy! You certainly got a stone (14 pounds) more out of Keenan than any of our lads and we know the horse well. I do not think on St. Cloud for the Cambridgeshire Sloan could have lost by over an inch. I had £30 on at 20 to 1 and of course may be prejudiced. The Americans visiting in London won largely on Sloan's victories. Gentlemen who never go near a race course would walk into a commission shop (pool room) in town and leave an order to bet money on Tod's mounts. They got much the best of the odds this way, because light backing at the track would cause the price to lengthen." Lowry Marks is the man who once bet the waiter in a restaurant a five dollar bill that the fish served was not a sea bass, and when the proprietor decided against him exclaimed: "Talk of hard luck; how about this! Why, I had every other kind of fish in the sea a-running for me."

The racing situation as concerns the opening of the west side tracks at Hawthorne and Harlem is unchanged. Saturday morning, as per agreement, the leading horsemen and prominent bookmakers held a meeting and deputized George Rose and W. E. Applegate to call upon the track managers and see if things could not be adjusted so as to further the best interests of all the parties concerned. It is understood that the committee conferred with John Condon, who gave as his ultimatum: "Harlem will open as advertised and run three weeks. If Corrigan does not open in opposition I am willing to leave to W. E. Applegate, as arbiter, the question of how dates shall be arranged thereafter."

After the races of the day George Rose said: "I have not yet seen Mr. Corrigan, but can say that I think everything will be arranged next week and that peace will prevail and racing go on smoothly." Mr. Rose was most emphatic in the assertion that he had been done a great injustice by a morning paper with its article headed, "Rose Is Out Of It. California Bookmaker Deserts Corrigan and Hawthorne," and said that he was therein misrepresented.

A rumor was current that parties had offered $300,000 for the Hawthorne track.

President Schulte said: "Hops told me he thought Goodrich had an excellent chance but I couldn't think it."

Marcus Cartwright having a man sick, at least 30 unemployed book clerks were approached before one could be secured to hand out tickets. "It is only a one day job" said the others.

Candelaria was kicked and badly injured at the post. Goodrich did the kicking.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The edict that went forth the other day, presumably from Secretary Hopper, to the effect that, beginning July 15, stable rent would be charged owners keeping horses at Latonia at the rate of $1 a month, has caused something of a commotion among the horsemen who remained at the over-the-river track and intended to continue there to await the resumption of racing at this point.

The determination of the Latonia people was in the nature of a surprise to the horsemen, and it goes without saying that some of them were pretty sore over it. On the face of the returns it does look like niggardly policy for a big track like Latonia to seek a revenue by charging horsemen that have always raced at its meetings stall rent during the intermission in racing hereabouts. According to report, Latonia's "income from stall rent" for the next couple of months will not be very great. Nearly all the owners that had not already done so will, it is said, remove their horses from the track. They will go to Newport, Oakley, Lexington and Louisville.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

TIME AT WASHINGTON PARK.

Yesterday will always remain a red letter day in the annals of racing at Washington Park. It was befitting that a vast crowd should be present to applaud the marvelous feats of the gallant thoroughbreds. Ailyar tied the track record at five and a half furlongs and Candleblack the track record at six furlongs. Then the much improved colt Goodrich clipped a full two seconds from the mile and a half record for all tracks and Pat Dunne's good horse David Tenny wiped out the mile and a quarter record conjointly held by the two mighty racers Salvatore and Morello. And to fill full the measure of wonderful things done Azucena went a full mile in 1:39 flat and sent Racine's track record of 1:39½ into the list of musty things eclipsed and to be forgotten by all but the grey beards of the turf.

Such marvelous racing is in keeping with the traditions and reputation of Washington Park as a racetrack. It is the natural result of the concentration of all the best racehorses of the west on the only western course that can induce their coming together. It is very gratifying that the revival of racing over the premier western track should be marked by such a brilliant sequence of record-breaking performances as its patrons have witnessed daily since American Derby day. Always a fast track, the Washington Park course is now simply a marvel in those qualities of soil, drainage and perfect care-taking that enable horses to skim over its firm but elastic surface with the speed of a swallow cleaving through the viewless air.

It is not probable that Goodrich's mile and a half performance will be eclipsed for many a day to come. And yet it must not be hastily concluded that Goodrich, good and much improved colt as he evidently is, is a wonder. It is the track that is a wonder. What record could Hamburg not smash over it. And what a pity it is that this great colt, in his present peerless form, cannot now race over it. No doubt he could set a new line of records at all distances that would stand as long as Ten Broeck's did. But it is a case where the horses of the day and the track of the day cannot come together, unfortunately.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Hamburg, whose next engagement is in the Brighton Cup, is doing as well as could be desired, and if nothing happens in the interval will go to the post as fit as he can be made. This event, which is run for on the 30th of this month, will be a thorough test of Hamburg's staying abilities. The field may be made up of the following horses: Ben Holladay, 133; Ornamet, 130; Tillo, 130; Ogden, 130; Don d'Oro, 130 and Hamburg, 112.

Some time ago A. J. Joyner presented Wm. Oliver with the two-year-old Mail Bag. Oliver got the colt fit and put him in a race for maiden two-year-olds the other day at Brighton Beach. Then Oliver showed his appreciation of Joyner's generosity by handing the latter a check for the value of the purse which the gift horse had just won.

T. P. Hayes has quit the racing game in the west for a while, and will try his luck with his large stable in the east during the balance of the season. He brought twelve head down from the Canadian circuit the other day to Brighton Beach, where he will remain until the opening of Saratoga.

Thirteen Harlem stakes close today. Their terms and conditions are set forth in the advertising department of DAILY RACING FORM and owners, who have overlooked them, should enter their horses today. It is the last chance.

Winner—B. c. by Himyar—Aileen Aroon.
Post 22 minutes. Start fair. Won driving and out to the last ounce; second and third doing their best. Ailyar was lucky and perfectly ridden. He is a very good colt. Martin got him away flying, took the short route, and finished with power when the pinch came. Toluca, on the rail, looked dangerous at the head of the stretch. Martin was on the lookout, though, and took particular pains not to let Clawson through. Formero was perhaps the best. He stumbled and almost fell at the start. H. Martin had him on the outside all the way, too. This fellow is a good colt, but unlucky. Judge Tarvin was right there all the way. He ran a good race. Jolly Roger was off poorly and could never get through. Holland was practically left.
Scratched—Sea Lion, 115.

7205 SECOND RACE—3-4 Mile. All Ages. Allowances. $400 added; net value to winner $435. $15 entrance; $75 to second; $25 to third.

Winner—B. c. 3, by Candlemas—Tulla Blackburn.
Post 20 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; second eased at the end after an early drive. It was a cracking good race and Candleblack showed a touch of his real quality. He is certainly a good colt and has improved wonderfully since he changed hands. Meddler was the cause of all the delay at the post. He was a good horse himself today and ran an honest race, considering the way he was used during the long delay. George H. Ketcham has a lot of speed. It was used the first five-eighths and he tired badly at the end. The Kentuckian made up a lot of ground and ran a fair race. Marzella was used up running with George H. Ketcham.
Scratched—Afamada, 101; Abe Furst, 107.
Overweights—The Kentuckian, 5 pounds.

7206 THIRD RACE—1 1-2 Miles. 3-year-olds and upward. Great Western Handicap. $2000 added; net value to winner $2100. $60 entrance; $450 to second; $150 to third.

Winner—Ch. c. 3, by Patron—Edith Gray.
Post 8 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second and third driving to the limit. It was a sparkling race and is a record breaker in every sense of the word, taking two seconds off Buckwa's mark. Goodrich was undoubtedly the best. In his present form he is certainly a cracker jack and has been very consistent at this track. Burns rode a perfect race on the colt. He rated him nicely and took the short route. On the turn for home he hit Goodrich a couple of times with his whip and the colt responded gamely and was hand ridden into the last eighth. What er Lou ran a grand race. No complaint can be made of the ride on him either. Foucon may have made it in too soon, but it cut no figure in the result. He was not good enough to beat Goodrich. Morte Fonse, who is in rare form just now, finished with a rush. He would have been second in a few more strides. Bing Binger was rank and ran under a choking pull the first mile. He is a good horse now. Candelaria was always outrun.
Scratched—Imp, 115.
Overweights—What er Lou, 14 pounds.

7207 FOURTH RACE—1 1-4 Miles. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling. $700 added; net value to winner $560. $20 entrance; $150 to second; $50 to third.

Winner—B. c. 4, by Tenny—Mamie B.
Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly after an early drive; second whipped out. This was another magnificent race and a record breaker, too. David Tenny was at his best and ridden to perfection. He had to be at his best to win. Boanerges was on edge and keyed up for the race. He stepped the first mile in 1:39 flat and then weakened a trifle. Such a pace would make the very best of them stop. This fellow is a colt of class, but a mile is his race. Monk Wayman, far outclassed, ran well for a short way. He belongs in cheaper company.

7208 FIFTH RACE—1 Mile. 3-year-olds and upward. Allowances. Purse $400; value to winner $350. $10 entrance; $75 to second and $25 to third.

Winner—B. f. 3, by Pardee—Starlight.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won hand ridden; second driving. Azucena ran a phenomenal race. She was in a pocket all down the back stretch, and on the far turn pulled up and went around those in front of her. When she got to Imp it was all over. The race was a very fast one, but not withstanding that Imp hardly ran her best. The filly seemed short on early speed. She was none too well ridden. This was the best excuse for her defeat. Caywood was on the outside, took the long route and made his run too soon. He also got careless when in front, and instead of going on about his business, he wasted time and ground by looking around laughing at those behind him. It was certainly a careless ride. Burns stole a march on the far turn and before Caywood knew what had happened had Azucena in front. Bannockburn went to his knees and almost fell on the first turn. After that he was never a contender. St. Alfonses D ran a good race as far as he went. Keep track of this fellow in cheaper company.
Overweights—Bannockburn, 2 pounds.

7209 SIXTH RACE—7 1-2 Furlongs. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling. $400 added; net value to winner $370. $10 entrance; $75 to second; $25 to third.

Winner—Ch. g. 5, by Sobranje—Pleased.
Post 6 minutes. Start good. The winner was mildly driven; second, third and fourth under keen pressure. Roger B was the best and the form of the race. He was nicely ridden and saved ground at every turn. Thorpe dropped in behind the leaders and never made a move until the stretch was reached. It took little or no effort then to win. Bishop Reed ran a good race. He was right there all the way. So was King Bermuda. The latter, though, was stopping badly at the finish. Muskalonge came fast at the end. He is a hard horse to ride. Don Quixote was a false alarm. Flo Honeydew was pulled up at the half mile post.
Scratched—Cash Day, 108; Winslow, 105.

Winner—B. h. 6, by Luke Blackburn—Ailene.
Start good. Won easily. Continental was easily the best. He is a remarkably improved horse and will do to watch in a fairly good class. Long Acre ran his race, but was slightly interfered with at a critical point on stretch turn. He closed very strong. Merlin ran a fine race after being interfered with on the stretch turn. Songster appeared to be galloping the first three-quarters and then stopped badly. He got bad handling. Landsale is good but was outclassed on speed. Will do better on a slow track. Charagrace belongs among very cheap ones.

Start good. Won easily. Federal Card was plainly the best and is a grand looker. He won like a good one. Federal showed finely on a speed basis and was eased up at the end. Burlington Route bolted at the head of the stretch or he might have been second. He looks like a stake horse. Leardo closed strong and ran improvingly. Helen Thomas was eased up at the end and will do to watch in a lower class. Queen's Badge ran well. May Landis ran an improved race. La Penitente got away badly, but was unable to improve her position. She wore big bar plates today. Country Dance had no chance at the start. Lumiere is a grand looker, but was short and green. Tennis is also green and short, but looks like a race horse.

Start fair. Won handily. Lambent was easily the best and was in light. She is a very game, honest mare and honestly handled. Fleeting Gold, finely nursed, closed fast in the stretch and is at her best. Van Antwerp closed again after dropping back, apparently beaten on the stretch turn. He is very good, but can't beat Lambent's kind at such weights. Banquo II was short and closed like a whirlwind. He is good, but wants a longer route. Billali ran well. Watch him at five-eighths when in light and in sloppy going.
